31ST SUNDAY IN THE ORDINARY TIME – 30TH OCTOBER 2022

ALL SAINTS, Solemnity – 1st November: The feast first honoured martyrs. Later, when Christians were free to worship according their conscience, the church acknowledged other paths to sanctity. Today's feast honours the obscure as well as the famous – the saints each of us has known. The book of Revelation says:

"After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands... One of the elders said to me, 'These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb" (Rev. 7:9,14)

ALL SOULS, Feast – 2nd November: The Church has encouraged prayer for the dead from the earliest times as an act of Christian charity. "If we had no care for the dead," St. Augustine noted, "we would not be in the habit of praying for them". The feast acknowledges human frailty. Since few people achieve perfection in this life but, rather, go to the grace still scarred with traces of sinfulness, some period of purification may be necessary before a soul comes face to face with God. The Council of Trent affirmed this purgatory state and insisted that the prayers of the living can speed the process of purification. In prayer we stand in God's presence in the company of someone we love, even if that person has gone before us into death.

MISSIO: October 2022: Thank you for celebrating World Mission Sunday!

Thank you very much for your donations to World Mission Sunday last week.
